Things to See and Do

Whale Watching (seasonal): Hervey Bay offers a wide range of whale watching cruise options to get up close to these magnificent creatures. Spend a half-day or full day cruising the clear waters of the bay spotting Humpback Whales along the way. Whale watching season is from July to October.

Fraser Island: The largest sand island in the world is the place to go to experience beautiful beaches, magnificent fresh water creeks and spectacular rainforests. You can easily access Fraser Island from Hervey Bay with a variety of tour options available.

Lady Elliot Island: This coral cay located at the southern tip of the World Heritage Listed Great Barrier Reef, is situated in a highly protected Green Zone island that is a sanctuary for over 1,200 species of marine life. The island is known for its manta rays, turtles and unspoilt coral reef.

Water sports: Hervey Bay offers an abundance of water sports from diving and snorkelling, to kayaking, stand up paddle boarding and boating. Visit Reception for more information on tours and hire companies.

Bike hire: Take yourself and the family for a leisurely ride along Hervey Bay's 18kms of foreshore bike and walking paths. See Reception to hire your bike today. Hire fees include a helmet, lock and a map of the local area.

Directions to Ramada Hotel & Suites Hervey Bay

By Air

Two major airlines service Hervey Bay Fraser Coast Airport with direct flights from Sydney and Brisbane. If your starting point is Sydney, Virgin Australia has a direct flight every day of the week. The daily flight arrives in Hervey Bay in the morning. Check the Virgin website for departure and arrival times as times may vary. If your starting point is Brisbane then Qantas also has you covered every day of the week with a number of flights every day.

By Car

Hervey Bay is approximately a 3.5-hour drive north of Brisbane. Depart Brisbane on the Bruce Highway and stay on the highway until you reach Maryborough. From Maryborough follow the signs into Hervey Bay.

From the north: Follow the Bruce Highway south until you see signs directing you to Hervey Bay. The first signs will take you through the small town of Howard and from then the route you need to take is clearly sign-posted.

By Bus

You can travel to Hervey Bay from Brisbane or from the north of the state by road coach. Greyhound and Premier have a number of coaches running through Hervey Bay at various times every day (Brisbane to Cairns and vice versa).

Please note: Not all coach services are direct on their trips north and south, so be sure to check which buses operate on the direct route.
