Things to See and Do in and Around Wanaka

Central Otago Wine Region

Renowned for its world-class wineries, the Central Otago Wine Region is perfect for couples and families. With abundant natural attractions, world-class wineries, and cosmopolitan restaurants and cafés, the Central Otago Wine Region is a place that never fails to entertain, captivate and astonish.

Ski Fields

Within easy driving distance of Wanaka you will find three world-class ski fields, namely, Cardrona Alpine Resort, Snow Farm and Treble Cone. Each of them caters to different levels of skiing expertise, from a skilled skiing enthusiast to the novice skier. For the more adventurous skier there is Southern Lakes Heliski. If you are heading off for the snow fields, check the local road and ski field condition with Reception before embarking on your day of adventure. In the summer, the ski fields are alive with walkers and mountain bike riders surrounded by rare alpine flora.

Mount Aspiring National Park

Mount Aspiring National Park covers 3500 sq km and is the third largest national park in New Zealand. The mountainous and glaciated heart of the park is largely unspoilt and a true wilderness. The Park sits on the fringe of the spectacular mountains and valleys of northwest Otago and South Westland at the southern end of the Southern Alps. The Park has a variety of walking tracks. For more information, please contact Reception.

Southern Lakes

The Southern Lakes are one of the most diverse and physically beautiful landscapes in the world, with rugged mountains, wild and deserted coastlines, and golden hill country to clear alpine lakes. It is no wonder that New Zealand film director Peter Jackson chose this region for many Lord of the Rings locations.

Fiordlands

The townships of Te Anau and Manapouri provide lakeside bases to explore New Zealand's largest National Park and World Heritage Area. They are also the nearest centres to Milford and Doubtful Sound and many great walks. The Fiordland National Park is a vast wilderness, extending from high mountains to wild coastline and is home to natural wonders such as Mitre Peak.

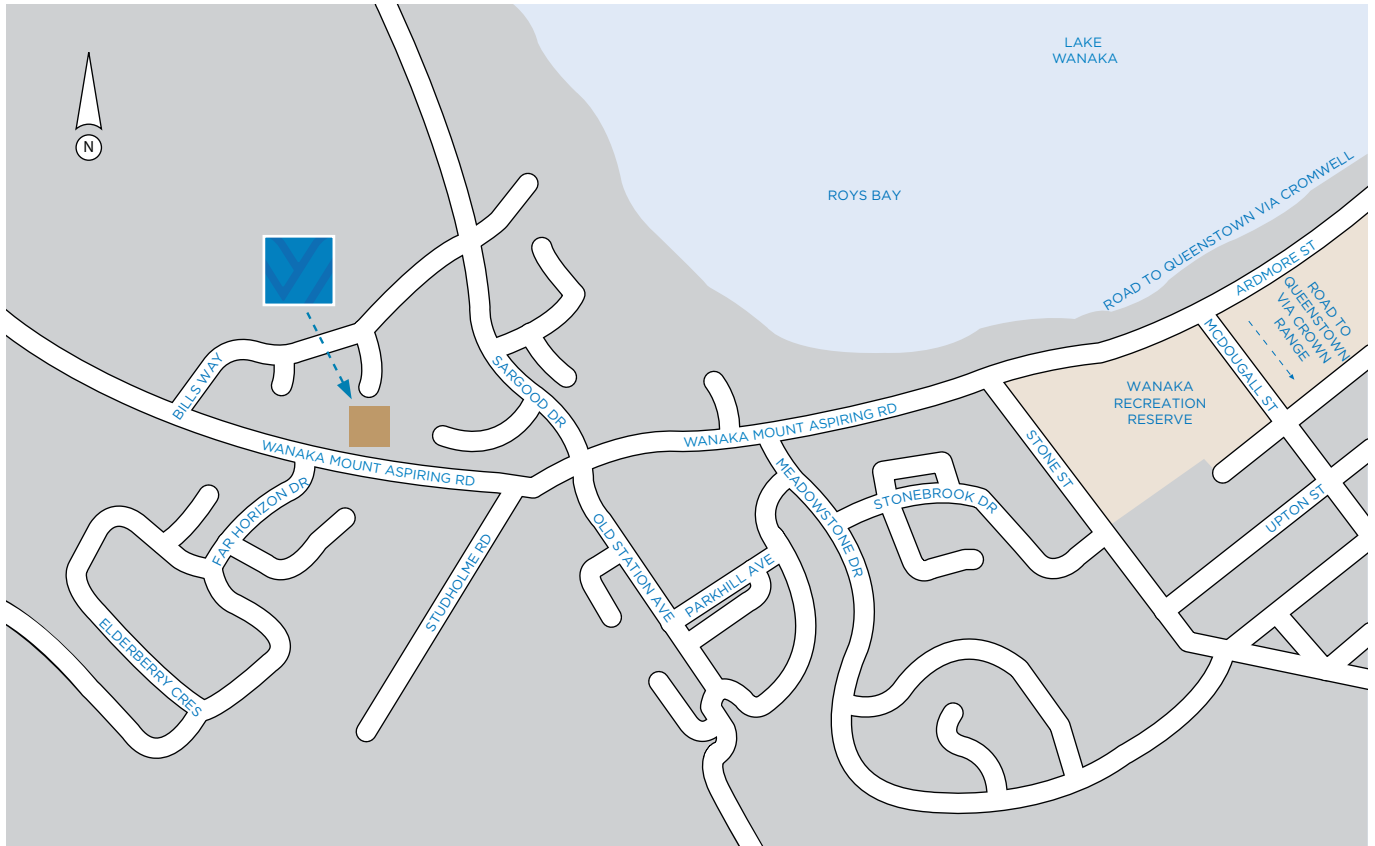

Puzzling World

Puzzling World has become an icon of Wanaka with the theme of anything puzzling and puzzling eccentricity. Stretch your mind in the illusion room or stretch your patience in the Great Maze – even the bathrooms are unique!

Driving Instructions

From Queenstown Airport take the State Highway 6 and follow the signs to Wanaka. Once you have reached the township of Wanaka, pass through it towards Mount Aspiring. Wyndham Vacation Resorts Asia Pacific Wanaka is located 2kms from the township of Wanaka on your right-hand side.

If you are travelling from the Crown Range, turn left off Stone Street onto Wanaka Mt Aspiring Road. The resort will be on your right.
