Things to See and Do on the North Coast of New South Wales

Coffs Harbour is a region that caters to everyone. With a warm subtropical climate, you can laze on the beach, enjoy a round of golf, stroll through quiet trails in the World Heritage rainforests and State Forest flora reserves, scuba, snorkel, kayak, surf, fish or watch the whale migration between June and November in the Solitary Islands Marine Park. Alternatively, find a secluded area and simply enjoy the serene atmosphere of Coffs Harbour. You can do as much, or as little, as you like.

Local Attractions

Coffs Harbour Botanical Gardens: Coffs Harbour Botanical Gardens has something for everyone with a unique blend of flora, recreation, education and relaxation. Visitors will enjoy the beauty of both native and exotic flora, rainforest areas and prolific bird life. The Botanical Gardens also play host to a variety of events and festivals throughout the year.

Dolphin Marine Magic: Dolphin Marine Magic (previously named the Pet Porpoise Pool) is a marine park that provides people with an educational, enjoyable and above all 'hands-on' experience. You'll have the chance to pat the dolphins' bellies and feed the fish, green sea turtles and even the little blue penguins! The popular daily shows feature dolphins and playful sea lions showing off their extraordinary talents. Tickets can be purchased through Reception at discounted prices.

The Big Banana: The famous Big Banana, 11 metres long by five metres high, is Australia's most famous 'big' icon. The Big Banana site is sure to keep the whole family entertained with an array of activities including the downhill toboggan ride, mini golf, water park, ice rink and a mixture of food and retail outlets.

Dorrigo Rainforest Centre: Dorrigo National Park provides everyone, even those who are wheelchair-bound, the opportunity to experience the unique rainforest environment. The Rainforest Centre has its own educational interpretation centre. Don't miss the spectacular Skywalk, high above the forest canopy with its superb sweeping views.

Butterfly House Maze and Tearooms: Walk among hundreds of live butterflies in the all weather indoor rainforest setting. The outdoor maze area will have you hunting for clues to answer the quiz. The colour maze will have all members of your family trying to work out the levels of difficulty. The garden room provides a beautiful setting to indulge in lovely homemade teas or light lunches.

Beaches: The vibrant seaside town of Coffs Harbour features 90 kilometres of golden beaches ideal for swimming, surfing, diving, fishing and more. Park Beach is a popular family beach with barbecue facilities and a children's play area while Diggers Beach is renowned for its ideal surf conditions.

Dining Out: There are an abundance of eateries in Coffs Harbour - restaurants by the sea, sidewalk cafés, country pubs, clubs or resort dining.
